Nephew of Zine Clichés:

- Recipes. We own cookbooks.
- Advice columns with no letters. Girls, leave the job to Eppie and Popo.
- Gay vs. Queer charts. If you need a list to tell the difference, there probably isn't one.
- Celebutante/gliteratti snapshot pages. Out-of-focus flash photos of your clique does not constitute interesting news.
- Stupid zine editor names. "Sting" and "Bono" are bad enough, your closet cases.
- I hope I never see that picture of Bill and Al as gym queens again. It's been on the cover of the Advocate, after all.
- Overpriced zines. Hmmm... four pieces of paper. Should be able to charge at least a buck a page.

Upcoming Event:

Spew 3 in Toronto. It's accessible and cheap. Zines, videos, performances, weird shit, party with live bands. A homocore alternative-queer thing (this is not a "convention") May 15 & 16, 1993. Contact Box 504, 88 Wellesley St. East, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M4Y 1H4

Calls for submissions:

• The Second Coming, a sequel to Coming to Power, is seeking submissions. We need hot short stories about woman-to-woman S/M, bondage, and fetish sex. We will also consider poetry. If you have photos, cartoons, or b&w drawings, please send xerox copies or prints. Do NOT send your only copy of an image!

We'd also like non-fiction about the mess at Michigan, censorship of S/M art and literature, separatism, coming out, gender play, S/M etiquette, roles (butch/femme, top/bottom, etc.), S/M relationships, daddy or mommy fantasies, the bisexual debate, vegetarianism and non-leather S/M, discrimination inside and outside the community, public play, younger players, nonmonogamy, body modification, contracts, transsexuals in the lesbian S/M community, and anything else that interests you.

If you've been involved in the community for 10 years or more, or were involved in founding an organization, we'd like to do an oral history with you or receive an article about your work. Let's preserve a record of our struggle, strength, and power.

We prefer original work, but we'll consider reprints. Please tell us where the work originally appeared. Help us spread the word. If you need your work returned, enclose a SASE. We'd like a phone number where we can reach you. Please give us 4 to 6 weeks to respond. We're especially interested in hearing from women who are not middle-class, white, thin, and able-bodied. Our deadline is April 1, 1993. Send your ideas, completed work, or questions to Pat Califia and Robin Sweeney, 2215-R Market St #261, SF CA 94114.

• Hyacinth House Publications is looking for submissions for a gay/lesbian/transvestite/S&M/transsex/bisex/etcera sex kind of project. Unrepentant writing only—the more bizarre, the better. No wimps, whiners, hadn-wringers or sensitive artists allowed. Also, no rhyming poetry, ever. Fiction up to 4,000 words, poetry, b&w art, and anything else you care to send welcome. Submit w/ SASE, or else. Box 120, Fayetteville, AR 72702-0120.

Zine Primer:

- zine rhymes with scene, not sign.
- In our listing, '+' means it's the first listing of the zine, '' means new issue since last time, November 1992.
- Check for changed prices and addresses.
- Don't use the zine name on the envelope if it has words in it you wouldn't say to your grandma.
- Despite what your mother told you, send green U.S. money to these magazines. Most people can't cash checks with funny names, and they sometimes bounce.
- Write your name, address, and what you want on a piece of paper. People throw envelopes away.
- Zine editors are only human, and it may take a while. Try a SASE with a reminder. You may have better luck sending for zines indicated as recently published.
- Zine editors love mail, including feedback after you get the zine. Nobody likes a boring one-line request for a zine.
- See the resource list to help find other genres of zines.
- Don't put it off. Write and start getting zines now.
